We're not going to go on about how we are the first Bagel store in the country! What we would like you to know is that everything we deliver to you is of superior quality, including both freshness of our produce and preparation. Our gourmet selection will have you asking for seconds before you finish the first. Welcome to our Heaven of freshly baked Bagels! Did we mention we're the first? Kidding! Enjoy!

Rehydrate or Dehydrate:

Water is essential. Period. Though, it does not necessarily have to come in pure H2O form. We also get water from different sources such as food and some drinks. However, some of the beverages we consume do dehydrate, such as coffee and certain teas. Whatever it is you decide to slurp down make sure that you are hydrating and not dehydrating. Make sure water comes after any beverage that dehydrates.
